TWO THIN GOATS

Once upon a time, not far from a jungle, there were two thin goats. Both of them were hungry, tied together with a brown rope. They want to eat the green leaves from two separated bushes. One bush was on the left. The other was on the right.

The first goat wanted to go the bush on the left, but the second goat wanted to the other. How ever, the rope was short. So, they could not reach they bushes.

Then, the goats decided to work together. First, they ate the leaves of the bush on the right. Then, the left one. The leaves were delicious. They were very happy.

THE FOX AND THE CROW

One bright, sunny morning, an ugly black crow perched on the branch of a tree. She had just stolen a tasty piece of cheese and was about to enjoy it just.

The dark brown fox passed by. He was very hungry, so he thought of a clever plan to get the cheese. The fox looked up at the crow and said, I have always admired your beauty and your nice beak. If your voice is as fine as your looks you could be queen of the birds !

The crow wanted to be a queen. So, she opened her beak and made aloud “caw” ! of course, when she opened her beak, the piece of the cheese fell to the ground.

The fox happily snatched up the cheese and laughed. He said, my dear crow, your voice is fine but your opinion is not. You shouldn't believe everything you hear ! thanks for the cheese !
