Cycling at the Coastal Area

Last Saturday afternoon , I went to Coastal Area for cycling with my family. They were my father, mother, and my younger brother. We went there by car.

My mother reminded us to wear sport costumes and sport shoes After we were ready, we left home at half past four. My father drove the car carefully. We arrived there at five oclock. After arriving there, my father looked the empty place for parking the car then we went to bicycle rental's shop, there were many people rent the bike at the moment. We took a line around ten minutes, then came our turn, I and my younger brother chose single bicycle while my parents took double cycle. We rented for an hour it cost Rp50.000 for three bicycles.

We cycled around and round the coastal area and enjoyed the scenery and fresh air. After that we went to cafe to enjoy traditional delicious food like lendot (made of cornstarch, vegetables and sea snail)and juice.

At six oclock we went home, we were tired but happy
