Moscow – A Russian journalist has uncovered evidence of another Soviet nuclear accident, which killed 10 sailors and contaminated an entire town.

Yelena Vazrshavskaya is the first journalist to speak to people who witnessed the explosion of a nuclear submarine at the naval base of Shkotovo – 22 near Vladivostok. The accident, which occurred 13 months before the Chernobyl disaster, spread radioactive fall-out over the base and nearby town, but was covered up by officials. Residents were told the explosion in the reactor of the Victor-class submarine had been a ‘thermal’ and not a nuclear explosion. And those involved in the cleanup operation to remove more than 600 tonnes of contaminated material were
