Simple Present Tense

Grade VIII

Chapter VII

To communicate states and events that happen routinely or as general truths, in order to appreciate the nature, to show our pride in something, or to give good and bad samples.

Simple present tense

Elephants are the heaviest land animals. They are also intelligent and have good memories. Most of them live in Africa and Asia, such as in Lampung, Indonesia. They use their long trunks almost like an arm, to put food and water in their mouths. They eat grass and plants.

(Adopted from The Little Animal Encyclopedia)

Tigers are the biggest of all cats. They live in the grasslands and forests. Their striped coat gives them good camouflage when they hunt. They love meat to eat.

(Adopted from The Little Animal Encyclopedia)

Dayu, Lina, and Siti are never late to class. They walk to school, but they always get to school on time. They rarely take public transport. They look healthy and happy all the time.

They often speak English to each other, to their friends, and to the English teachers. They ask questions in English. They answer questions in English, too. Their English is very good.

There is nobody at home most of the day. Both my mother and my father go to work, and the children go to school. But we usually have breakfast and dinner together. We do not only eat, but we also talk, chat, and tell jokes.

Both my mom and my dad are very good cooks. My father often makes fried noodle and fried rice for breakfast, with lots of vegetable and egg or chicken. My sister and I make the table and clean the dishes after the meals.
