A long time ago, in East Java there was a kingdom led by Prabu Merak. He had a handsome prince named Raden Banterang. Their kingdom had a battle with Klungkung kingdom.

One day, Banterang was hunting with his guards when he met a very beautiful woman. Although it was strange to find a beautiful woman in the jungle, he asked her, "Who are you, lady?" The lady told him that she is the daughter of Klungkung King who ran away to the jungle to escape from the battle. She was very sad when her father died in the battle. Banterang was quite shocked in hearing this, because his father "Prabu Merak" was the king who killed the woman's father.

Nonetheless, Banterang fell in love with her and took the woman to be his wife. Later the woman's brother found out the marriage. He gave his sister a keris and asked her to kill Banterang.

Banterang found the Keris on his bed. He thought that his wife would kill him. However it was the princess brother who put the keris on the bed. The princess and Banterang then had a quarrel. in her desperate attempt to prove her innocence, the princess jumped into a river.

Since then, the river is known as Banyuwangi. Banyu means water and wangi means fragrant. The river's name reflects the princess honesty.

There was a girl named Pina who lived on a fruit plantation with her mother. When her mother worked night and day, little Pina would spend all her time playing with her friends. When her mother asked her to do something, she would always reply that she couldn't find things, even if it was laying right in front of her eyes.

One day, her mother fell sick and couldn't even get up to cook some food. So, she asked Pina to cook some rice. However, Pina being her lazy self, said "I can't find the pot, so where should I put the rice?". Her mother told her where the pot was. Then she said, "where is the ladle, how am I going to cook without a ladle?". Again her sick mother had to tell her the exact location. Pina did the same with salt, rice and water! Enraged by Pine's behaviour, her mother cursed, "May you grow a thousand eyes" and went back to sleep.

When she woke up, she could not find her daughter. She searched and searched, and so did every single person on the plantation. After a few days, a strange fruit with thousand of little dots was seen on the plantation. When Pina's mother saw the fruit, she was immediately reminded of Pina's beautiful brown eyes and thus, the fruit with a thousand eyes was named "Pinya", meaning pineapple in Tagalog.

Long time ago, there was only the sun that brightened the earth. The sun shone brightly all the time. It did not set and there was no night. People worked until they were too tired to work anymore.

One day, the Creator of the universe came to visit. He saw men working in fields. He realized that the people had no sense of time because there were no days and night. He called the sun and asked it to set in the evening and rise again in the morning.

In the evening, the sun went down and it was dark. People did not understand what had happened or why it was dark. They were frightened and ran all over the place. Some of them fell down. Some fell into ditches and hurt themselves. Nobody knew what to do. Finally their leader called out and asked people to take a rest.

People were happier. They did not work all the time. They had to stop when it got dark and they could see nothing. They got regular hours of rest and felt much better. However there was one problem. Since they could see nothing after sunset, they often fell down, banged against trees and knocked against people. They could not see where things were kept and therefore broke things easily. It became quite chaotic!

Then the Creator visited them once again and saw the condition. Finally he created the moon. It rose in the sky and shone softly at night. As a result, people could see, but the light did not hurt their eyes or stop them from sleeping. They live a happier life with the sun in the day and moon at night

Once upon time, there was a beautiful girl called Maria. She was tall with black eyes, and long shining hair. The colour of her skin was light brown.

One morning, while she was collecting firewood, she met a young man. He looked like a hunter. He was tall, handsome and very neatly dressed. No one knew who he was or where he came from nor did anyone know his name. He did not tell Maria about himself. Maria and this young man became good friends for a long time. They fell in love with each other. Maria wished he would marry her. But the young man never proposed Maria. This made Maria unhappy. She persuaded the young man to marry her. She told him that they would be happy together because both of them did not have any family.

The young man did not agree with Maria's idea. He told Maria that he was not a human being. He was a spirit from the sky. They were different and they were not allowed to get married. Maria was very surprised. She did not know what to say. The young man said that he had to go back to the sky. He did not want Maria know much about him.

Knowing the truth Maria was very disappointed and felt so sad. Maria held the young man's hand tightly. She did not want to be separated from him. Suddenly there was a blinding flash of light and the young man disappeared. Maria was frightened when she knew that the man disappeared and he left his hand on Maria's.

Maria ran to her house and buried the man's hand in her garden. Soon, she saw a strange plant growing where she had buried it. The plant grew fast and some fruits appeared. The colour of the fruit is yellow and it looks like a man's hand with finger on it. That is how the fruit came to be known as banana. originated according to the legend.
